2 The Sling sofa in Italian leather utilises a 'memory' foam that moulds around the sitter as body heat warms it.

Seven of Karen McCartney's best winter buys

1 Super nature Artist Andrew Sullivan lifts the spirit with his mix of natural and artificial elements, such as a John Dory painted on a patterned linoleum background. An interest in anthropology and the nature of evolution gives weight to these delicate works. I particularly like this oil on linoleum work called Cardinal. Works from Australian Galleries' recent exhibition sold for between $990-$16,500. Call (02) 9360 5177 or visit www.austriangalleries.com.au.

2 Hot designs Melbourne-based Temperature Design had one of the most creative stands at this year's DesignEX in Sydney. Its simple leather and wood pieces in soft shades have a timeless appeal, while this deep couch in buttery leather is a little more edgy. Sling sofa, from $3500, and Chester ottoman, from $1500. Call 0417 568 296 or visit www.temperaturedesign.com.au.

3 Card sharp I love a gift card and when I find a good one I tend to buy in bulk. The range of hand-made cards from Me and Amber is a case in point. Designs range from lopsided penguins (much cuter than it sounds!) to these bold, hand-printed crosses. They're $6-$7 each and can be found at Published Art, (02) 9280 2839.

4 Bowled over Potter Malcolm Greenwood has produced a beautiful range of porcelain bowls and plates in delicate shades. The fluting effect gives a soft, organic feel. Small bowl, $24; medium bowl, $48; plate, $55. Call (02) 9953 8613 or visit www.malcolmgreenwood.com.

5 Perfect patina Britain's Cole & Son and designer David Easton have launched the Patina Collection of wallpapers – unique for their satin-like finish and unexpected colour blends. Shown here is Jungle Leaves, POA, from Radford Furnishings, (03) 9818 7799 or (02) 9368 0484.

6 Period piece Space has made room for a range of brooches, bangles, necklaces, cuffs and rings by French jeweller Natalia Brill. Prices start from $123. This necklace, $431, is made from beads covered in soft suede. Call (02) 8339 7588 or visit www.spacefurniture.com.au.

7 Lip service I'm never short of lipsticks but they're usually the same shade, so I was pleased to discover the Natio Pure Lip Crème range. It has my usual favourite, a plummy shade called Happy (shown here), but also lighter tones in the same colour family. They're $14.95 each from Myer, David Jones and leading pharmacies.
